

Germans-Jews-Czechs: The Case of the Czech Lands

The German-Israeli Foundation for Scientific Research and Development
Bucerius Institute for Research of Contemporary German History and Society, University of Haifa

Chair for Jewish Studies, University of Erfurt
Chair for Jewish History and Culture, University of Munich

International Conference: 11-12 December 2003
Institute for History / Historicum
Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich

Conference Schedule, Lecturers and Topics

December 11, 2003

Opening Remarks: Michael Brenner, Munich

Section: Anti-Semitism

Chair: Martin Geyer, Munich

Martin Schulze-Wessel, Munich

Anti-Semitism in the Czech Lands and the foundation of the national Czechoslovak Church

Michal Frankl, Prague: Sonderweg of Czech Anti-Semitism?

Response: Robert Luft, Munich

Section: Jewish Nationalism

Chair: Peter Brod, Prague

Katerina Capkova, Prague

Czechs, Germans, Jews - where is the difference?

Yfaat Weiss, Haifa

Translation - Conversion - Projection - Central European Ethnonationalism and the Zionist

Version of Jewish Nationalism

Response: Hillel Kieval, St. Louis

December 12, 2003

Section: Cultural Hybridity

Chair: Eli Bar-Chen, Munich

Scott Spector, Ann Arbor

Mittel-Europa: Some Afterthoughts on Prague Jews and Translation

Dimitry Shumsky, Haifa

Unintentional Subversives: Jews and Multi-Ethnic Neighbourhoods in the Czech-German-

Jewish Lands 1900-1930

Response: Andreas Gotzmann, Erfurt

Section: Jewish Spaces & Private Spheres

Chair: Wolfram Sieman, Munich

Mirjam Triendl, Munich

"L'schonnoh habbo! nach dem schönen Marienbad.." Secular Jewish Pilgrimage and its Strategies of De/Territorialization.

Gaby Zürn, Leipzig

"Religion Nebensache". Intermarriage between biological integration and (self-) destruction.

Response: Michael Brenner, Munich

Concluding Remarks: Andreas Gotzman, Erfurt