

Queer experiences during the Third Reich and the Holocaust

International Workshop Organized in Co-operation with The Institute for German-Jewish History, University of Hamburg
May 7, 2009

Greetings: Amos Morris-Reich, Director of Bucerius Institute, University of Haifa

Session 1

Chair: Amos Morris-Reich, University of Haifa

Stefanie Schüler-Springorum, Director of the Institute for German- Jewish History, University of Hamburg

Homophobic Memories. An Analysis of Holocaust Testimonies

Gilad Margalit, Department of General History, University of Haifa

The Implicit Comparison: The Nazi Persecution of Homosexuals and the Holocaust

Atina Grossmann, Faculty of Humanities, Cooper Union, University of New York

Finding the Queer in the Search for "Normality": Thoughts on Emigration from and Survival After the Nazis"

Ofar Nordheimr Nur, Department of General and Interdisciplinary Studies, Tel Aviv University

Hans Bluher and the Youth Movements in Germany and Central Europe

Session 2

Chair: Stefanie Schüler-Springorum, University of Hamburg

Viola Rautenberg, Institute for German-Jewish History, University of Hamburg

Resistance and Homosexuality in Chug Chaluzi, Berlin

Andreas Pretzel, Magnus Hirschfeld Society, Berlin

Between Homophobia and Anti -Semitism. The Persecution of Jewish Homosexuals in Berlin during the Third Reich

Claudia Schoppmann, Writer, Berlin

Living in the Shadow of Persecution: Lesbian Experiences during the Third Reich

Session 3

Chair: Atina Grossmann, Cooper Union, University of New York

Jewish Studies Department, University of Haifa ,Livne Sharon

1994 The Right to be Different": LGBT Delegation to Yad Vashem. Israel"
Department of Sociology, Political Science and ,Dafna Hirsch :Respondent
Communication, The Open University of Israel

(Closed to the Public) Followed by Roundtable concluding Discussion

The Workshop will be held in English