

University of Haifa

Bucerius
Institute

Bucerius Institute for Research of Contemporary German History and Society

Invitation

Series of lectures given by Prof. Wolfgang Frindte, Jena University, Germany

Thursday, March 4, 2004

"Authoritarianism, social dominance orientation and xenophobic prejudice"

12:15–14:00 Rabin Building, Room 7079. Dept. of Psychology, Department Seminar

Thursday, March 11, 2004

"The development of national Xenophobia and social possibilities to moderate it"

14:30–16:00 Eshkol Tower, 7th floor, Room 712. Faculty for Welfare and Health Studies

Thursday, March 18, 2004

"Anti-Semitism today as observed in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Preliminary data and its interrelations with attitudes towards Israel"

14:15–15:45. Dept. of Political Sciences, Terrace Building, Room 411

Tuesday, March 23, 2004

"Xenophobia – its expressions in different nationalities and differing religious and political affiliations, as well as, its relations to socio-demographic and psychological variables"

17:15 – 18:45. Room to be announced, Dept. of Sociology, 3rd year BA evening class

Tuesday, March 30, 2004

"The stranger ante portas: Too near physically yet too remote mentally. With apologies to Sigmund Bauman."

15:45 – 17:15 Seminar Room - IBM. Bucerius Institute Internal Seminar

Lectures will be held in English and are open to the public

For further information contact Ms. Lea Dror: ldror@univ.haifa.ac.il, Tel: 04-8288232

Fax: 04-8288282

<http://bucerius.haifa.ac.il>